CURTAIN CALL CAFE

JULY 1ST, 2019

MINUTES

The Mount Jackson Hometown Partnership meeting was called to order by Chairman John Boor on July 1, 10 am, at Curtain Call Cafe. In attendance were: John Boor, Laura Boor, Joyce Shirley, Donald Shirley, Bonnie Good, Donna Milsten, Jessica Kelly, Karen Estep, Candi LoPresti

Old Business:

John announced that the Partnership is now officially a non-profit organization, promoting education and historic preservation. He is currently working on a handbook and bylaws for the group.

Formal elections will be held in December 2019 and it's important from now until December to try to recruit members of the community to join the Partnership. The Partnership can also be a member of the Shenandoah Chamber of Commerce now that we are non-profit. The Partnership will gladly accept sponsors and gifts from donors for all events and activities.

Holiday Homes Tour is progressing. Karen Estep will check into purchasing a credit card square so credit cards can be used the days of the event. We are looking for music (children's choir, school groups, hand bells) to play in the Union Church during the homes tour.

The Rhynard Family will perform on July 14 from 5-8pm in the center of town for our Second Sunday Music. Hot dogs and drinks will be provided for purchase and Lickity Split Ice Cream will be there.

Bill Vaughan will perform in August and we are working on obtaining the Valley Boys for September.

John will meet with Suzanne Porter regarding the Dinner at the Meadows.

New Business:

Curtain Call Cafe will put up a giving tree, sponsored by the Partnership, for a family in need for Christmas. Laura will decorate the tree.

There was a discussion regarding doing something in Mount Jackson the weekend the Beach Boys are at Bryce, which is July 26.

Mount Jackson will be part of the Yard Crawl this year, which will be held on August 10. The Partnership will sell hot dogs and drinks.

Mark Bowyer is working on a Gospel community sing for September 22.

Jessica Kelly is working on a master calendar.

The Partnership needs to begin thinking about the Harvest Fest, which will be October 26. The possibility of having a children's costume parade through town and then costume judging contest was discussed. Also vendors are needed.

It was recommended that agendas be provided at each meeting.

No treasurer's report as Karen Costie is out of town.

The next meeting of the Partnership will be August 5 at 10:00 am at Curtain Call Cafe.

The meeting was adjourned.
